Strong Teuton Attacks Made Early Today Against French and British Positions at Several Points on Front

(By Associated Press)

The Germans also attacked this morning in Flanders between Ypres and Voormezele on the northern side of the salient.

Washington, May 27.—President Wilson personally took charge of the war tax legislation today and appearing unexpectedly before a joint session of Congress, declared that it was necessary to proceed immediately with new war tax laws.

Plans which must have delayed the work, but which involved a working agreement between both parties, have fallen through, the President told the legislators, and there was no way to meet the problem of financing the war except to have Congress remain in session and go ahead at once.

The President called upon Congress to eliminate politics from consideration. Politics, he said, is "adjourned." The principal increases in taxation, the President said, should be on income from war profits and luxuries. It would be manifestly unfair, he said, to wait until 1919 before determining what the new taxes would be.

The President's address was comparatively brief, taking less than 15 minutes for delivery. In specific terms he gave a distinct warning against lobbying in connection with the new bill. There is indisputable evidence of profiteering at present, he said, and he declared that it must be reached by the new legislation.

"Profiteering that cannot be got at by restraint of conscience," the President said, "can be got at by taxation. There must be no hesitancy in taxing, if it were taxed justly." He appealed to Congress to approach the great task without selfishness or fear of political consequences.

"An intense and pitiless light beats upon every man and every action in the tragic part of war that is now upon the stage," the President said. He concluded his address with an appeal to Congress to do its work ungrudgingly and said that he could not guarantee a proper administration of the treasury unless the questions were settled at once.

When he had concluded his address, the President unexpectedly made a brief extemporaneous statement in which he said that just as he was leaving the White House for the Capitol today he had heard that the new German drive apparently had just begun, and that it added to the solemnity of his conception of the country's duty.

FREIGHT AND PASSENGER RATE INCREASE

McAdoo Orders 25 Per Cent Freight Increase, Effective June 25, and Passenger Rates June 10

(By Associated Press)
Washington, May 27.—To meet the wage increases just announced and higher cost of coal and supplies this year, Director General McAdoo today ordered the railroad freight rates in the United States raised 25 per cent, and passenger fares increased to three cents a mile from the present basis of two and a half cents.

It is estimated that this program will bring between eight hundred and nine hundred million dollars more revenue to the railroads within the next year. It represents by far the largest rate increase in the history of railroads.

The new freight charges which cover both class and commodity rates, become effective June 25, and the passenger increases go into effect June 10.

Travelers in standard sleeping and parlor cars are required to pay three and a half cents a mile in addition to Pullman fares, and in tourist sleeping cars three and a quarter cents. Pullman rates remain the same. Commutation and other suburban rates are increased ten per cent. Fares on electric interurban lines are not affected.

POLICE COURT

John Palmerine charged with keeping liquor for sale, was before the municipal court today and segregated $35.17 from his bank account. John was at the Boston and Maine depot Saturday night after the departure of the Bar Harbor Express at 10:30 and Patrolman Doherty put the field glass on him and found him struggling with the dress suit case which looked as if it might be loaded with granite paving blocks. John also had another bundle which had something weighing more than excelsior. The cop saw him flitting to the port side and inquired what he had in the case. John said it was clothing. Nothing but a dress suit would give John such a struggle and the officer ordered him to display the wearing apparel. He finally opened up the case and 15 long neckers met the gaze of the patrolman. John then threw an alibi at Doherty and said he was on his way to Berlin with the shipment of barley-corn. He and his load went down the line in the jitney.

The case of Eugene Boisvert of Somersworth, charged with operating an automobile without a state or Jersey license, went over till Tuesday.

Fred McMullen charged with intoxication in the B. & M. depot was fined $5.00 and costs of $5.47.

MEMORIAL SUNDAY OBSERVED BY VETERANS

Memorial Sunday was observed by the members of the Storers Post No. 1, G. A. R. and its auxiliary bodies on Sunday which they attended services at the St. John's church.

In addition to the members of the Post there were present, the Storers Roller Corps, the Sons of Veterans and the Camp Schley Spanish War Veterans. Rev. Nelson Kellogg the rector preached a very fine sermon on the day and the present world's unhappiness.

Memorial day is to be devoted this year to the serious consideration of the fact that we are in the war and as a day of prayer and there will be very little of the usual sporting events that take place.

OVER A 1,000 PLANES IN EUROPE

Washington, D. C., May 26

Answering the critics of the government, and particularly those who have attacked the aviation programme, comes a strikingly forceful statement from the Military Affairs Committee of the House, which declares that there are now in France 1,316 airplanes of American manufacture, of which 33 are combat planes.

The statement from the committee also says that there are now completed in the United States 3,760 airplanes.

This statement comes from the committee which unanimously reported the Army Appropriation bill to the House and which gives to President Wilson unlimited authority as commander in chief of the Army and navy. All limiting of the size of the army is thus swept aside and the public may know from now on that the Congress is back of the administration to fight the war to a finish.

The bill carries the largest totals ever reported to Congress in any army appropriation bill, amounting in appropriations and authorizations to $11,041,681,809.

"The appropriation provides during the next fiscal year," says the formal report of the committee, "for an army of practically 3,000,000 men, the pay being based upon an average of $2,313 per officer and $331.60 per man."

"Beginning with the regular army of 127,533 officers and men," we now have, including the draft calls for April and May, an army of 2,030,027.

"While some delays and mistakes have occurred, on the whole we think the country is to be congratulated that after a little more than a year from the date of the declaration of war, our country has constructed a wonderful military establishment."

"The total appropriations exclusive of advance, for the maintenance of the flying section, is $990,250,812. With the appropriations for machine guns and other munitions for flying machines, the total for the flying section is well over a billion dollars. Here is the provision giving the

Some of the larger items entering into the huge total carried by the bill are as follows:

Pay for the army, $1,587,418,130; clothing, camp and garrison equipment, $1,230,190,039; transportation of the army and supplies, $1,532,602,103; engineering operations in the field $392,000,000; automatic machine rifles, $237,141,000; ordnance, service and stores, authorizations at $1,036,455,001; and armored motor cars, $237,141,000.

Other items are for quartermaster's stores, barracks, quarters and a vast amount of miscellaneous routine appropriations entering into the support and maintenance of the army.

HAD SIXTEEN QUARTS OF WHISKEY

Who Is Responsible for Attacks?

Someone is responsible for an attack upon Portsmouth and vicinity in reference to the treatment of the men who are coming into this section to work. Boston newspapers have grossly misrepresented actual conditions. It has been charged that this city and vicinity is not trying to house the men. Everybody is willing to build homes when money can be obtained with which to do it. With the government appropriating millions and millions for housing at Hog Island and without a voice being raised, who has a right to condemn Portsmouth and what justice is there in it? This paper does not propose to allow anybody to malign the good name of Portsmouth. Our citizens are as good as any in the land. It is about time that somebody called upon these slanderers to stop.

Trying to Block New England.

Someone supposed to be an authority in the United States Shipping Board has issued orders to prevent any further extension of shipbuilding or industrial plants in New England on the ground of congestion. This clearly shows the lack of business judgment on the part of some of those identified with the shipping board, and no doubt Mr. Charles Schwab will soon start house-cleaning removing men who have no practical knowledge of the Atlantic coast or New England in particular. The Boston & Maine and Maine Central, serving the states of Maine and New Hampshire, are not running anywhere near their capacity, providing they have the equipment to do business. Portsmouth harbor could handle millions of tons of freight by water, as could Portland, Newburyport and other New England harbors. Certain officials in Washington, Detroit, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and particularly Washington, are crowding and taxing these business centers to such an extent that they are blockading every part of the country. What is needed in the shipping board is men of the Schwab type and who are not so tied up with the interests that control the big centers but what they can deal fair with the small communities. Of the millions that are being spent at Hog Island and other yards of that type in reclaiming swamp lands, dredging shallow rivers, etc., nothing of that kind is needed here. This section of New England needs some big men, broad enough and strong enough to defend what really belongs to New England. Men of New England are willing to give their all to win the war and they have not attempted to bleed the National treasury. There is no trouble in getting freight to any point in New England when business men acquainted with the territory are put in charge.

The stocks of the fireworks manufacturers have been bought by the government for supplying the army with flares and signal lights. This, with the fact that the country has been coming to its senses in recent years with reference to Fourth of July celebrations, will make the celebration this year exceptionally quiet and reduce the list of casualties to the minimum.

The War Department in deciding to publish the addresses of the men whose names appear in the casualty lists has done the right and wise thing. The value of such publication will be far greater value to the people of this country than to the enemy; in fact, it is difficult to understand how it can be of any value to the enemy.

The authorities at Washington are beginning to question the propriety of increasing newspaper postage, at least to the extent decided upon some time ago. Is it beginning to dawn on the law makers that the newspapers are one of the government's strongest arms at a time like this?

People outside of New Hampshire are smiling broadly at the commotion over "near-beer," and there are many people in the state who feel that an attempt is being made to carry the thing too far.

At Springfield, Mass., recently, a soldier was sentenced by court-martial to ten years' imprisonment for desertion. It is a lighter penalty than has many times been inflicted for that crime in time of war.

Sixteen men have been indicted in connection with the recent lynching of a young German in Illinois. After a year or two we shall probably be reading that the jury has disagreed.

Apparently the government is not to have so much difficulty in raising railroad rates as the companies had before the government took over the roads.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Maine For Prohibition
(From the Portland Press)
Why shouldn't we have prohibition immediately as a war measure? The sentiment of the country is shown to be overwhelmingly for it, and the country would then know whether it wants it after the war.

He Hit the Right Nerve
(From the New York Sun)
President Wilson would doubtless concede that it is exceedingly difficult to please all Americans, but his words to France accomplished that unusual effect. No matter how men may differ on other subjects, as to the heroism of France, the intelligence of France and the debt of civilization to France they are of one mind.

"Solemn Looking Blokes"
(From the Syracuse Post-Standard)
English observers viewing the American troops on parade in London with critical eyes describe them variously as "solemn looking blokes," "inferiorly adequate lot of fighters," "in physique and morale equal to the finest troops of any country," and a "fine lot of hussies."

A New Recipe for Disloyalty
(From the Springfield Republican)
In cancelling the citizenship papers of Frederick Wusterbarth, former postmaster at Clinton, N. J., Federal Judge Haight at Newark appears to have carried out a new policy of the Government for meeting flagrant cases of disloyalty. Wusterbarth had been an American citizen thirty-six years, but the judge regarded the fact of his pro-German utterances at this time as evidence that the oath of citizenship was taken with a mental reservation and therefore nullified. A well-known physician of Doughertyville, a native of Russia, though resident in Germany fifteen years before coming to this country, is the defendant in equity proceedings for the annulment of his citizenship on similar grounds. These cases are practically new in American history and the precedent needs to be followed with great discretion. There is no injustice in the principle involved.

A Stimulating Law
(From the Albany Journal)
As far as it goes, the new law which makes it compulsory upon every man in this state who is between the ages of eighteen and fifty to be usefully employed at least thirty-six hours each week, is highly commendable. Able-bodied men more than fifty years of age are beyond its reach, but presumably their number is not large. It will bring into the ranks of workers the everywhere too numerous class of younger men who are "too strong to work" or deem themselves smart enough to live by their wits. It will be decidedly interesting to observe the roundup of male inhabitants who have not been usefully employed, which will be made under the law.

It is immediate effect will probably be the appearance of a considerable number of job-hunters to whom that sort of activity is a novelty.

"Blue Devils" Not Blue
(From the Philadelphia Public Ledger)
At the same time the ninety-eight blue-clad poilus, grizzled veterans wearing the marks of the strain and anguish of the trenches, seem by their general good nature and their lively interest in everything to belie their name of "Blue Devils."

Suppose these "doughty" riflemen were the advance guard of an invasion by the real devils—those of Hun-dom—instead? What sort of welcome would they be getting?

The visit of the French soldiers is timely. Their awe-struck interest in the relics at Independence Hall was that of compatriots of Lafayette and Joffre in that sacred fane before them.

"Not as tourists, but as pilgrims" they stood in the presence of the Liberty Bell. And as they stood there they were surrounded by a cloud of witnesses from the "one great Society" alone on earth, the noble living and the noble dead.

American Soldiers in "The Old Home"
(From the Philadelphia Public Ledger)
London greeted the marching American troops on Saturday as warmly as the Anzacs and the Blue Devils have been greeted in American cities. By all accounts the men made a fine appearance; "hussies." Is the word that Londoners apply to them. The message of the King, the cheering in the streets, the praise in the newspapers—all these must have warmed the cockles of their hearts. Far from being among friends, such episodes as these are of happy import. They are of real value to the morale of both nations. They are a pledge of enthusiastic cooperation, of genuine confidence. This war, with all its horrors, will not have been fought in vain if it not only secures the world from another such struggle, but also draws closer the bonds that unite the English-speaking race. We Americans appreciate to the full the honor of fighting with France and Italy and Belgium; but after all England is "the old home" to a large proportion of us, and we must especially rejoice to find old misunderstandings and irritations melted away in devotion to a common cause.

Russia's Redemption Our Safety
(From the New York Times)
We are fighting for mankind, of course, but specifically we are fighting for that part of mankind which is comprised within the borders of the United States. We are fighting to preserve its independence and its institutions. And we know that neither the independence nor the institutions will last long if the great predatory power of modern times is permitted to extend its sway from the Baltic Sea to the Pacific Ocean. That is what will follow, as the night the day, if we are so foolish as to abandon Russia to her mercy.

It makes no difference in this respect whether Russia is brave, or cowardly, whether she has abandoned us or stood by us, whether she is ruled by saints or madmen. The present German empire, comparatively unscrupulous in extent and strength, has assailed and sought to overpower the rest of the world. If she is made virtually limitless in extent and strength, as she would be if European and Asiatic Russia were absorbed by her, she will be able in the future to accomplish with ease the overthrow of the rest of the world; and the first blow she will aim in that event will be at the American Continent. It is our own fault if we let her make herself irresistible. If we do, we will be her first victims. And if we let her have her way with Russia, irresistible she will be within ten years.

THREE AIRPLANES COLLIDE IN THE AIR

London, May 27.—There have been many instances in England of airplane fatalities from two planes colliding in the air, but the first case on record in which three airplanes were involved in a single collision occurred a few days ago at a Scotch aerodrome. The collision occurred about 200 feet above ground, and all three flying men were killed.

MONUMENT TO NEWFIELDS VETERANS

Beautiful Granite Memorial Erected in Honor of Those Who Served in the Civil War.

When Memorial day comes this year the few remaining Newfields veterans of the Civil war now living will be privileged to see a fitting and lasting granite monument erected to their memory standing on the lower square of that town.

The monument was dedicated Sunday with all the honor and respect possible to the veterans but six of whom are now living out of 60 whose names are inscribed on the bronze tablet.

The exercises were held at 2 o'clock, consisting of the address given by Maj. William H. Trickey, a veteran of the war, and now commander of the Soldiers' home at Tilton. Major Trickey was pastor of the local Universalist church from 1887 to 1901, and major of the Third N. H. regiment. An address was also given by Rev. Mrs. N. W. Smith of Beverly, Mass., pastor of the Universalist church from 1897 to 1907. The occasion was an event of home coming to many former residents who are scattered in different sections.

The monument is of New Hampshire granite, resting on a granite pedestal, set on two bases, each 6x4 feet and the monument itself is 3x3x3 feet making it tower to a height of nearly 7 feet. It was set by Hobbs and Hunter of Rochester.

On the upper base is inscribed 1861-1865, while on the monument itself a bronze tablet, or plate, bearing the inscription "In Loving Memory," and the names of the 60 soldiers who enlisted from the town during the Rebellion. The majority of the soldiers were in the 11th New Hampshire regiment, 31 going out with that unit.

Of the 60, six are now living, Horace O. Smith of Newfields, and Alcott Stover of the Second N. H. Regiment and H. James Paul of Hildesford, Me. Oliver G. Sanborn of Wakefield, Mass., and Albert A. Caswell of Haverhill, Mass., of the 11th N. H., and Reuben Haverorth of Malden, Mass.

The funds have long been in accumulation, they being started some 10 years ago by the Granite chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, assisted by the members of the G. A. R. and friends.

The names on the bronze tablet are: Charles W. Adams, George T. Armstrong, Samuel P. Badger, William C. Bond, Daniel Brackett, Lieut. George W. Caswell, Albert A. Caswell, George W. Caswell, John T. Hayden, William Hayden, Reuben Howarth, Jr., Joseph H. Hanson, Edward A. Hanson, Laurence D. Hayes, William D. Houghton, John W. Jones, Warren F. Jones, John F. Kennard, Frank H. Kennard, Edward L. Spead, John Spead, Alcott Stover, Nathan E. Stover, Moses S. Taylor, John B. Tetherly, Francis G. Trefethen, Alfred W. Whitman, Josiah Watson, James H. Watson, James H. Wilkinson.

The reception committee consisted of Miss Anna Wilkinson, Mrs. John B. Tetherly, Mrs. Jero Malchey, Mrs. Hildley Marsh, Miss Anna Downes, Mrs. Lois Enston, Mrs. George H. Ingram, all near relatives of the veterans. The refreshments committee was Miss Anna Dow, Mrs. Charles F. Simpson and Mrs. Harry G. Atwood.

The decoration and soliciting committee, Misses Juliette P. Conner and Miss Pauline Coon.

A party of veterans from George A. Gay post of Newmarket, many of whom were comrades of the Newfields veterans attended the ceremony. The monument was draped with the American flag for the occasion.

NEW MULTIPLE CAMERA FOR AVIATORS

London, May 27.—A new "multiple camera," with which allied aviators are now equipped is a development of the motion picture camera.

An airplane observer can take thousands of photographs at the rate of one per second if necessary. In this way it is possible to map the German lines with precision. Each camera is capable of 750 exposures with a single loading. The tuning of the film for the new exposure is accomplished automatically.

BOOKLET DESCRIBES MERCHANT MARINE

William St. Norton, of Boardman & Norton, one of many Rexall druggists now doing war duty as special recruiting agents for the United States Shipping Board, has received a fresh supply of literature describing the work of the Shipping Board in training men for the Merchant Marine. One booklet contains excellent views of the steel training ships Calvin Austin and Clov. Dingley, which have their base at Boston and spend most of each week at sea so as to give the apprentices on board their "sea legs." Each of these ships accommodates from 300 to 500 apprentices, all Americans, 21 to 30 years old, who are exempt from draft, and will remain so while in the Merchant service.

The "Mende," the "mother" ship of the recruiting squadron, with living accommodations for about 1,000, was originally the famous liner City of Berlin, once holder of the trans-Atlantic record both east and west.

HIS DESK

His desk is a most awful sight. At 10 o'clock a. m. With papers heaped wherever one can find a place for them: With letters, memoranda, books, And clippings aj; piled high—What wonder is it that the sight Should make him heave a sigh?

He starts in manfully to clear The cluttered mass away, He sorts, and files, and formulates The labor for the day. At last he tells the office boy To call the shorthand clerk; But when he's got the desk cleared up There's no time left for work.

LAST DAY OF RED CROSS DRIVE

Portsmouth Officially Not Over Top Yet
---Shattuck Ship Yard Make 100 Per Cent Subscription---Navy Yard Making a Good Showing

Today is the last day of the great Red Cross War Fund drive and while the final figures for this city are not available, it is thought that by tonight the city will be over the top, but not far over as could be wished. Reports from all over the country are for a wonderful over subscription of the by at least fifty per cent having $30,000 and Franklin is out to double its quota. There is only one answer to the above and that is if Portsmouth must put in a good day today and hold its place with the rest of the state. The Shattuck Ship Yard at Newington made the one hundred per cent mark on their first great drive, the men at the plant subscribing the total sum of $5,220 for 2000 men a very fine showing. They completed their drive on Saturday, but of this sum not over a fifth possibly will be credited to Portsmouth, as the men have asked that their subscriptions be credited to their home towns, which included Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont.

At the Navy Yard on Saturday about $5,000 had been collected, but like the Shattuck Company, a good portion of this will go to other towns, although handed through this city. The drive at the yard will be officially closed at noon today when the team captains will make their final reports and the prizes for the team captains will be awarded.

The Gate Shoe Company turned in Saturday $553 a very fine sum for the number of people employed.

The Morley Hutton Co and the Atlantic Corporation will close their subscriptions this noon and make their final report during the afternoon. The Veterans campaign committee have done wonderful work having collected something over $1,000 and they have made a thorough canvass of the city, they will finish up today.

The men's teams held their final meeting at nine o'clock this forenoon and the following that the final clean up will be made and by night the total subscriptions will be known.

Saturday afternoon there was a sale of potted plants, on Market Square which netted about $35.00 to the fund. The plants and flowers were donated by the Portsmouth Flower Shop, Costello and Shuman seed stores and Misses Lockward and Dennett and Mrs. Walker, had charge under the direction of Mr. Ewald.

The young ladies who have been on booths at the local theatres have turned in a good sum of money. They have averaged over thirty dollars a night, a creditable showing.

There is still a day to donate for those who have not already done so and for those who wish to increase their subscription. The committee want to reach $20,000.

STATE GUARD TO GO INTO CAMP

Co. D of This City, With Manchester Companies, Will Go to Lake Massabesic, July 22.

The first battalion of the New Hampshire State Guard, including Companies A, B and C of Manchester and D of Portsmouth, will go into camp the week of July 22. It has not been decided where the camp will be located, but it is probable that the Amesbury recreation grounds will be the choice.

The other two battalions of the state guard will go into camp at a date earlier than the first battalion. The choice of the campgrounds of these also remains to be decided. It will be the first encampment of the New Hampshire regiment since its organization.

The first battalion is under the command of Major Preble Hatch. It is planned to leave Tuesday, the second day of the camp, and to be gone over night, returning Wednesday night. Thursday has been designated as Governor's day.

Because of the inability to secure enough tentage from the government for the encampment at one time of the entire regiment, the plan was decided upon to call out one battalion at a time.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the friends from the ship yard for the beautiful floral tribute and to express our appreciation for the kindness shown at the loss of our dear brother.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Syphers.

ADVERTISEMENT OF SALE OF CAR LED TO ARREST

Price, Alias Harrison, Was Formerly in Army; Says Joyriders Did the Trick.

The arrest of E. Newton Price in Lewiston in connection with the stealing of an automobile from this city puts an end to this man's activities for a while at least. It appears that he has quite a record. The Lewiston Journal has the following relative to his recent arrest:

Price, under the alias of John Harrison, came to Auburn Thursday afternoon and stayed at the Cortland over night. An advertisement while he inserted in Friday's Sun caught the eye of George W. Hilton, auto inspector and posing as a prospective buyer he visited Price and induced him to bring the car to Lewiston to demonstrate it to Chief Field of the police force who also posed as a purchaser.

Placed under arrest and questioned he admitted that his last name was Price, but would give no other information. The police had on file a card sent out by the police at Portsmouth, N. H., giving Price's full name, and asking that he be arrested for the theft of a "Commonwealth" touring car, on the night of May 17 from the Chalmers garage, Arthur Clark, proprietor. The card gave a good description of Price, and also described the car in detail.

Price admitted nothing. Later, with the remark that he was being used decently by the officers for the first time in months, he told his entire story to Capt. O'Connell. Price talked freely, admitted everything from the time he left Waterville until his return to Lewiston. "One joy ride did the trick," he said. "I was in the car on the night of May 17 from the Chalmers garage, Arthur Clark, proprietor. The card gave a good description of Price, and also described the car in detail."

"I was in the car on the night of May 17 from the Chalmers garage, Arthur Clark, proprietor. The card gave a good description of Price, and also described the car in detail."

The prisoner said he worked at Bangor, where he has a wife and child, for Subberger Brothers, having previously served six years as corporal and acting sergeant in the United States Army.

He was promoted and sent to take charge of the Waterville office of Subberger Brothers. There he told the police he tried to live beyond his means and finally left hurriedly. Since then he worked in many cities and had recently come back to Boston driving an auto. This he sold and came to Portsmouth. A joy ride used up the money and more drinks led him to steal the auto.

The Lewiston police were informed by the Waterville department that he is under indictment in Kennebec county, where he is wanted for embezzlement from Subberger Brothers and for forgery on complaint of the Peoples National Bank.

Asked why he did not register, Price said he did not dare to for fear of discovery. "That's the way it has been for many months," he added. "You have to do one thing to cover up some thing else."

RESPONSIBILITY OF DRAFTEES

Millions against millions, and all that counts is what you are when you finally get up against the real thing on the battlefield. Not merely millions and fond but ability to execute orders on the firing line. All of the firearms, explosives, money, food and ships will be of no avail without adequately trained men—the more training the better—the sooner the war will end.

Young man in the draft, do you realize that every day you let slip by without taking advantage of every possible opportunity to train yourself you are "stalling" and waiting for the Hun to do things to you? Don't be satisfied to just put your shoulder to the wheel when called; have the wheel already moving when your Uncle Sam wants you.

You owe it to yourself—to your own safety—to fit yourself as thoroughly as possible. The best trained soldier is the one who stands the best chance of getting through an engagement unscathed.

Money can buy munitions, food, ships, but there is only one thing that can pay for lack of training—human life. Your blood and the blood of your comrades at arms.

Responsibility rests upon us all but most conspicuously upon the draftee. Upon the fitness of our recruits depends whether our supreme task of making the world safe for democracy is dedicated in vain, whether the millions of our gallant Allies who have died for eternal right have been sacrificed in vain.

You would of course defend your home—your children, sisters, brothers and parents against a Prussian invasion. Your military drill is a part of this defence just the same as though you were harried in your home with a rifle at a loophole. You are not at such an advanced stage of the game, that's all.

Every young man from 18 to 30 years of age has the opportunity to begin training at once by presenting himself at the Armory Friday evening, May 31, at 8 o'clock. The number of draftees who are interested is increasing, but not fast enough, so it has been decided to extend the time for enrollment, especially as it appears that the plan is not generally known.

TWO KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT AT WELLS BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Palmer of Rochester
Killed and Four Children Injured,
When Train Struck Auto

(By Associated Press)
Wells Beach, Me., May 26.—A freight train struck an automobile at one of the Boston and Maine railroad crossings here today and caused the death of Harry Palmer and wife of Rochester and severely injured two of the four children who were with them in the auto.

Mr. Palmer had been here with his family during the day and they were on their way home when at Hedges crossing a short distance west of the depot, the train struck the car, ran over the railroad truck directly in front of the train, which struck it and hurled it a demolished mass, some distance. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer were so badly injured that they died within two hours after the accident. The children were taken to the Webster hospital at Biddeford where Scott age 15 and Edson age 11 were placed upon the danger list. Doris age 13 and Carl an infant were badly bruised, but they are expected to recover. Mr. Palmer was employed at a machine shop in Rochester.

EXAMINATION FOR P. O. CLERK.
The U. S. Civil Service Commission will hold a competitive examination at Portsmouth, N.H., for the positions of clerk and carrier in the post office at Portsmouth, N. H. Applicants must have reached their 18th birthday, but not their 35th birthday, on the date of examination, and must be citizens of the United States. Male applicants must measure not less than 5 feet 4 inches in height in bare feet. No male applicant who passes the examination will be eligible for appointment either as clerk or carrier who does not weigh at least 125 pounds without overcoat or hat. It will be inadvisable for male applicants whose normal weight is less than 125 pounds to enter the examination. Female applicants are not required to be of any specific weight or height.

Each applicant will be required to submit to the examiner on the day of examination a photograph of himself without two years.

For pamphlet of information and the required application apply to Ralph B. Hill, the local secretary at the Portsmouth, N. H., post office, or District Secretary at Boston, Mass., with whom applications must be filed in time for him to arrange for the examination.

FINE RACING CARD FOR MAY 30TH

In the 225 pace, Miss Bertha Stackpole will drive her entry Billy Burke. The local favorites, Dan K., Hibbi Oak, and Bessie Herrick, are all in fine condition and very evenly matched. May Flower, formerly owned by Fred L. Shaw, who made such a good showing last fall at the Bates in New Hampshire and Maine, has changed hands and Clifford Plant is now the lucky owner. He has been given careful training and will be fit to give a good account of himself when they give the word.

The free for all will be some race. R. H. Brett, owned by T. P. McWilliams, is the fastest horse ever owned in Portsmouth, holding a record of 2:02. Also the fastest four-year record and seven heat record. Mud Lake doesn't need any introducing as he has a record of 2:12 and a fast consistent race horse and won many races last year and has never been behind the money. This race will be worth the admission alone. There are many horse men from out of town coming for this event.

The 225 trot belongs two fast and evenly matched horses, Barbion, a deep rich bay of handsome conformation, owned by E. E. Kent of Newmarket is one of the most promising young horses in New Hampshire. He is bred by the noted Stallion Bengara.

The colt race has two very showy youngsters, who have good racing manners and will give a good race. Special race will bring three local horses who will give an interesting contest.

The Directors' race will be something of an innovation in the racing line. Each director will enter a horse but will not have the privilege of driving his own horse, but will have to drive some other entry and in turn some other driver will drive his horse, the horse coming in last will win the race. Each man driving some one else's horse will drive to win, hoping his horse will be last. Drivers will not be allowed to use whip or reins to urge horses, will have to resort to word of mouth.

Entries for races:
225 Pace—Billy Burke, Miss Bertha Stackpole, West Lebanon, Me.; Dan K., John Kelly, Portsmouth; Hibbi Oak, L. C. Beane, Newington; Bessie Herrick, Joseph Mott, Newington; May Flower, Clifford Plant, Kittery.
Free for All—R. H. Brett, T. P. McWilliams, Portsmouth; Mud Lake, Arthur Schumann, Portsmouth.

225 Trot—Barbion, E. E. Kent, Newmarket; Lella Todd, D. S. Pratt, Portsmouth.
Colt Race—Weidell Ross, Frank Chureldi, Portsmouth; Ross Patch, Arthur Schumann, Portsmouth.

Special Race—Stranger, B. Gelueck, Portsmouth; Frank M., Fred Warden, Portsmouth; Lady Defiance, William Warden, Portsmouth.

Also a directors' race which will be an innovation. Nothing to be under the able management of C. A. Allen and N. H. Standish will do the starting.

KERENSKY DIDN'T ARRIVE ON STEAMSHIP

New York, May 26.—Alexander Kerensky, who became Prime Minister of Russia shortly after the revolution which ousted the Romanoffs from the throne, was expected by many Russians in this city to arrive from Scandinavia today on the liner Heilig Olav, which reached here from Copenhagen and Christiania. Apparently he was not on board. If he was, he was so skillfully camouflaged that no one recognized him.

Members of the Naval Intelligence Service, who boarded the Olav in large numbers, agents of the Department of Justice, who likewise were numerous, representatives of the Scandinavian-American line and passengers on the vessel all declared that there was no sign of Kerensky, nor any one resembling him, among the company brought across the Atlantic.

CONCORD DEFEATS HIGH SCHOOL

The High School team was defeated by the Concord High at the Play grounds on Saturday afternoon in a closely played game. The local boys started very well getting three runs in the opening inning, but the Concord team got to Kirkpatrick in the fourth and sixth innings and added a few costly errors forced ahead. The local made a good bid for the game in the eighth scoring five runs, Smith getting a home run with three men on.

The Concord team however killed what ever hope was in the ninth when they ended the game with a fast double play. The local boys in place played fast ball, Thompson, Kennally, and Smith featuring while Callaghan was the star of the visiting team.

The score by innings:
Innings 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R H E
Concord.....0 1 3 0 0 1 0 0—12 11 7
Portsmouth...3 0 1 0 1 0 0 0—10 8 5
Batteries, Welch and O'Brien; Kirkpatrick, Smith and Woods.

HERE & THERE WITH THE SPORTS

Over a half-mile course on the Squamscott Saturday afternoon, at sleek flag but against a strong wind, both of Exeter's four-man crews defeated those of Middlesex school, the first four by two lengths in 3 minutes 25 seconds, the second by three-fourths of a length in 3 minutes 26 seconds. Last year Middlesex won both races by nearly the same margins. Exeter's second four got a poor start. For their first four it was an "E" race.

Before a large gathering of about Sunday, Portsmouth defeated Amherst 4 to 1, in the annual commencement game. Jack Ross of Melrose, Mass., pitched a heady game for the Green, pulling out of several holes. He was well supported by Sever of Houghton, Mass., second string backstop.

Gale, Bruce and Martin excelled for the winners at the bat and Davison for the visitors. The fielding features were contributed by Grey, a long running catch of a foul fly, and by Captain Murphy, who started two snappy double plays. Brisk played a brilliant game at second for Amherst.

Although forced out of the game because of illness, "Babe" Ruth, pitcher, Boston, clings to the batting leadership of the American League according to averages just released.

Jesse Gullford the well known N. H. golfer, is again on deck, being in the Bay State to take part in the Oakley County club's three-day open golf tournament. When Gullford and Fred Wright meet in the qualifying round a royal battle is expected. Gullford came up from Cornell aviation school for a furlough and was elected at the chance to take part in the tournament.

Exeter and Portland high school had an interesting game Saturday afternoon, the Maine boys scoring two runs in the ninth and thus saved a shut-out as Mashley pitched a no-hit, no-run game up to the eighth inning. Score 6 to 1 in favor of Exeter.

According to the latest reports Fred Fulton, heavyweight fighter, has accepted an offer to fight Jack Dempsey 20 rounds at Danbury, Conn., July 4.

RED CROSS TOURNAMENT AT COUNTRY CLUB

The opening golf tournament was held at the Country Club on Saturday for the benefit of the Red Cross and the sum of $85 collected from entrance fees.

There was a good field started but there were a great many "no cards." R. D. McDonough won both gross and net with a gross of $1, H. W. Poyser with a gross of $1 and a net of $0 was second.

The Scores Gross Handicap-Net
R. D. McDonough $1 2 79
H. W. Poyser 94 14 80

The club will be the guest on Wednesday of the delegates from the New Hampshire Golf Association, when a handicap tournament will be played and supper served at the club house.

BIG WRESTLING MATCH TONIGHT

The annual big wrestling match will occur this evening when Bill Dryden will meet Prof. Moby Main-ford the wrestling instructor at the University of Virginia.

Mainford is one of the best men at his weight in the country, for since he moved north he has not lost a inch and he has been meeting them all. He threw John Kilgus twice in an hour, "Pinkey" Gardner and all of them, and he confidently expects to throw Dryden. He may be a little too confident in this respect as Dryden after two matches is now in fine shape and the Prof. will at least know that he has been in a match if he does get the decision, and it is very possible that his string of victories will be broken.

Mainford is a student of the game, a clean and lightning fast man so that the match should be a whirlwind affair for the faster they work the better it seems to agree with Dryden. The local wrestler intended to close his season with the Kilgus match, but Mainford was very anxious to get a match as he did not think that he would be his way for some time again.

O'LEARY'S BROTHER IS ARRESTED

New York, May 26.—John J. O'Leary, a brother of Jeremiah O'Leary, who failed to appear in court last Monday for trial on an indictment charging publication of seditious matter in the Bull, an anti-English periodical, was arrested tonight on a charge of conspiracy to obstruct justice in connection with the disappearance of his brother.

John O'Leary who is a lawyer, was taken into custody by agents of the Department of Justice. He will be arraigned in the Federal Court tomorrow.

A nation-wide search is being made for Jeremiah O'Leary by the Federal authorities.

SAILORS RECOMMENDED FOR MEDALS

(By Associated Press) Washington, May 26—The heroic conduct of American naval men in rescuing 34 of the 75 members of the crew of the American munition ship Florence II, which caught fire in French waters and broke in two and sank, was reported in a report by Rear Admiral Wilson of the American naval forces in France.

Lieut. H. D. Hurdell who ran his destroyer at the risk of losing his depth charges into the fire and blaze of the burning ship was recommended for the Congressional medal and a gold life saving medal for the rescue of a man who they jumped into sea filled with exploding boxes of munition.

Six officers who handled the life boats and motor boats engaged in the rescue and twenty-eight seamen were commended for their work.

HINDENBURG IN HOSPITAL WITH TYPHOID

Geneva, Switzerland, May 26—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, chief of the German General staff, is in a hospital at Starnberg, suffering with typhoid fever according to advices from that city. The rumors that Von Hindenburg was dead is incorrect but his condition is critical.

Typhoid is said to be spreading in Germany.

Still another week has passed and Germany has not begun their long expected new offensive against the allies in Flanders and Picardy. It is not improbable however that the blow will fall at any minute.

Aviators winging their way back of the German lines watching the enemy still report a continuation of the work of bringing up fresh troops, guns and stores, for what is believed will be their greatest effort to reach a decisive decision.

Meanwhile the allies have not been idle but each hour sees them better able to stand the attack, everywhere he work of getting the lines in shape being carried on with great speed.

In the work of strengthening the line the Americans are playing no secondary part, the steady stream of Americans who are arriving at the front cheering the French and British who have been through some grilling battles in the last drive. The Americans have and are continuing to give a good account of themselves in the front line trenches, their artillery playing havoc with the enemy line and the men outgunning the Germans where ever they have met.

Even the Germans at home who have hitherto sneered at the Americans, are beginning to pay attention to the all large number of Americans who are taking their places in the lines. Even the semi-official North German Gazette in remarking the strength of the American troops and wonders how the lightning trained Yankees will meet the German soldiers who have been military trained from childhood.

No where along the battlefield has there been any engagement of importance. There has been several raids by the British, French and Americans, upon the German lines with varied success and some effort in this direction by the Germans have been put down. There has been heavy artillery fire on some sectors. The shelling of the allies position east and northeast of Amiens has been very heavy.

On the Italian front the Austrians have essayed several sharp attacks in the mountainous region.

GOLD STAR FOR WAR MOURNING

Washington, May 26—With the approval for President Wilson, the woman's committee of the Council of National Defense has strongly recommended that a three-inch black armband with a gold star be worn by American women who have lost members of their families in the war, instead of the usual mourning costumes. The plan provides for the placing of a gilt star on the armband for every relative lost. The determined avoid-

MANY CHILDREN PARTICIPATE IN MAY PARTY

Affair Held at Home of Mrs.
Justin Wendell; Proceeds
Given to Red Cross.

About forty children participated in a Red Cross May Party held at the home of Mrs. Justin Wendell, Boyd Road, on Saturday. By her young daughter Valina, each child in attendance contributed ten cents which was turned over to the local Red Cross. The affair was held on the porch and the exterior of the house was decorated with the national colors.

The girls wore dresses of various colored crepe paper, and the boys wore crepe paper jackets on their shoulders and paper hats. The children formed in the line and marched from Boyd Road to Woodbury avenue, back to Boyd Road, Thornton street and back to Boyd Road.

The procession was led by Beatrice Mudgett dressed as a Red Cross nurse. She was followed by four drummer boys, Masters Emmet Duffy, John Obery, Leslie Manning and Marston Shaw. Next came Margery Hadley impersonating Liberty, carrying the American flag. She was followed by the remainder of the children. Three girls were dressed especially pretty and attracted much attention by their novel appearance. Barbara Shaw, in a red dress, Violet Wendell in white, and Marguerite Ryan in blue marched side by side, forming the national colors.

The afternoon was devoted to various out of door games in which the children participated with the greatest zest and enjoyment. The boys enjoyed a ball game. Afterward refreshments of ice cream, assorted cake and candy were served.
